BIG OFFER

We call the attention of our readers to a remarkable club offer we are making in another column for the winter's reading. We are offering a value of $2.50 for $1.60. We hope all our old friends will have gotten in arrears will take advantage of this offer and pay up in advance for the paper. Be sure to read the offer.

"Be kind" admonishes the St. Lou's Globe-Democrat. Yes, by all means, be kind, but not the easy kind.

It is said that "nature abhors a vacuum," but the fellow who gets aboht habitually with an empty pocket just can't think so.

Three hundred million cans have been ordered by the California Fruit Canners' Association. That looks as supposingly like rushing the can manufacturers.

In effect Gov. Cummings, of Iowa, admits having promised not to covet Senator Allison's seat, but falls back on the fashionable right to change his mind occasionally.

Governor Swanson's message bristled with good suggestions, but was altogether too long. Speaker Byrd's speech of acceptance was a gem of beauty. Bills are being passed in a majority of the next to see daylight again. Now for work genuine, and don't wait till the end is in into the last days of the session.

Mr. W. H. Meredith, of Richmond, was one of the party that took on the President to get him interested in securing Secretary Loeb to address the next meeting of the Virginia Bar Association, and on leaving said, "We told Secretary Taft we had the Virginia julep, which is far more succulent and not half so dangerous to Presidential aspirants as Fairbanks cocktails," and now Mr. Meredith, the friend of the julep need not apply to Oyster Bay for position.

Tucker, Stuart, Glass and Moon—all good men and true. We will exercise our right of choice before the primary has entered its second and then the fearer will command our magic power to obtain following. The prize is a rich one, the aspirants are worthy and the contest will be watched with growing interest. How rich in material is old Virginia, and hasn't she the one concern she should be the mother of another President?

The new currency plan is before the Senate, the important features of which being that National banks will be allowed to issue notes on other securities than government bonds. These securities are named, and among them are city bonds, certain railroad bonds, etc. It is urged that this will give to the currency all the "elasticity" that may be needed and this currency will be always ready to respond to call of legitimate demands So far so good, but can the wit of man or that of statesmen ever devise currency legislation that will guard against a "scare" among the people which always means a panic? Confidence between man and man is better than gold.

From Dinwiddie Again.

DEAR TIMES—Since Conference I have had a trying experience and have not had time to write.

On November 11th our old parsonage was sold for $1,200 and we expected to rent until we could build in a more suitable location. We were disappointed in securing the house we expected and had considerable difficulty in securing a suitable house, but we are now temporarily located at Hebron. We will, probably begin the new parsonage the first of March, or sooner.

Our last session of Conference was one of the greatest in the history. Some of the ablest speeches ever heard were delivered by ministry men, on the highest plane of brotherliness, in regard to be Randolph Macon College. There was no fellowship nor naked insinuations though plain and strong his charge was used.

Reports from the pastors indicated a year of great prosperity, both financially and spiritually. We now have 101,000 members representing what is best in Virginia spiritually, intellectually, socially and financially. It is truly a great body and our responsibility is proportionately great. Do we measure up to it is a serious question.

The addresses and sermons were of the highest order. The opening sermon by Dr. S. S. Lambeth was an inspiration and deeply impressed the vast audience that heard it.

Dr. H. M. DuBose, the great preacher, was at his best. I heard him on at Market Street church Sunday morning and it was great, masterly. His address on "The League and Missions" carried the audience like an irresistable flood, to the final peroration in a great burst of oratory.

Dr. McMurray's address on "Church Extension" was witty, strong, pathetic and everywhere bristling with facts. It was a mine of facts and shows that the Church Extension Board was doing a great work. Our church at Appomattox is largely due to the liberality of that Board.

The greatest address of its kind ever delivered before the Conference was from Prof. Gilbert, a full blood negro, one of the brainiest and most intellectual of his race. He is a great scholar and a noted orator. If his people had more such leaders as he, and would follow them, the race problem would soon be no problem.

This conference season marks an epoch in our history.

Petersburg. Well I was agreeably disappointed. Petersburg is no dead town as some people seem to think, and, though it has, probably the largest peanut factor, in the world, it is no mere "peanut" town. It is alive, very much so and hustling. Let no one think it "peckled" because it is "too close to Richmond." Splendid business, paved like its streets and mammoth ant prices are successfully operated. Here is located the Seward Brick Manufacturing Company and one the largest in the world. The peanut business, the flour and meal, the shoe and boot trade, the cotton factories and the immense tobacco business all combine to make Petersburg strong and safe. Its banks did not pay in "scrip," but in cash, new money.

I was the guest of Mr. A. L. Lewis, he was an ideal host, and gave me the best entertainment I have ever enjoyed at an annual conference. He has a model home and his wife is a lady of grace, culture and refinement. Their children are a model is of the manly boy. Rev. W. L. Ware was my fellow guest.

Petersburg has a splendid school system, many fine churches and handsome residences. A beautiful park in the center of town furnishes a pleasant place for recreation for the people. My host showed me many of the noted places of interest to a stranger, among them was the "Castle" built by Mr. Cameron. It is an imposing pile of grey stone built in the style of an old Scotch castle. It is magnificent in all its proportions and richly furnished. It is surrounded by an iron fence inclosing a large park. It cost a fortune.

There are many other items of interest but my letter is already too long, still I must mention Washington street church where the conference was held. It has recently been remodeled at a cost of about $20,000 and is, possibly, the most beautiful church auditorium in the State. Rev. J. B. Winn is the popular pastor.

Money Should not be A Source of Worry

But it often is. People loan their savings to others. When the interest is due it is not forthcoming. And then the principal itself is frequently lost. Most persons can earn money, but comparitively few are fortunate in placing their surplus in individual loans that are both safe and profitable.

In a good, sound, reliable bank like this your money will be absolutely secure. Our certificates bear 3 per cent interest.

We solicit your account, whether commercial or savings. Every branch of the banking business is conducted here. We make a specialty of mail order banking.

A Mineral Water that Defies Drugs

NATURE'S GREAT BLOOD TONIC

The recent drug exposures in this Country have proven to all that deadly poisons and stimulants are in many Patent Medicines. You never know when you might be taking some of that class.

Nature has made ample provision for restoring vigor and vitality to humanity, and the public, as well as doctors, resort to Natural Remedies, when all others have failed.

Are you troubled with Dyspepsia, Nervousness, Malaria, Kidney or Bladder Trouble, Chronic Diarrhoea or Dysentery, and above all, that dreadful disease Scrofula, which has almost baffled human skill, or Diseases peculiar to Females?

Piedmont-Bedford Concentrated Iron & Alum Water

Is Nature's Remedy for Nature's Ills. Yes, when you consider that disease comes from impoverished or run down conditions of the system, this Natural Mineral Water has the system what it needs.

The analysis of this Water, shown on the bottle, tells you what Nature thinks you should take when sick, and the doctor who reads it will agree.

Do you think the grouping together in this Water of 17 different minerals, which accidental? Reason answers, NO!

Are you troubled with Malaria, Kidney or Bladder Trouble, Chronic Diarrhoea or Dysentery, and above all, that dreadful disease Scrofula, which has almost baffled human skill, or Diseases peculiar to Females?

An 18-oz bottle of Piedmont-Bedford Concentrated Iron and Alum water contains all the minerals of 25 gallons of the average natural water—Then why buy a barrel of water when you can get a bottle of minerals at the trivial cost of one dollar. The dose is a teaspoonful in a glass of your own spring water.

How this Water acts upon the system is not clearly known. It is judged mainly through its action as a powerful BLOOD TONIC.

We have many valuable certificates, which we will be glad to mail, if you are interested.

THE TIMES.

WEDNESDAY, JAN. 15, 1907.

Have you read our big club offer?

Cash will be paid for tobacco on the market here.

If its news you will find it in the Times, the old county paper.

Burford, Lynchburg, is advertising a special January sale.

Mr. and Mrs. Howard Marshall returned to Ohio to-day.

Shearer Bros. & Franklin have a new advertisement in this issue.

Read the brands of fertilizers advertised by Purdum & Caldwell.

Mrs. W. E. Smith entertained a few of her friends Monday evening at tea.

Miss N. Lizzie Marshall left several days ago on a visit to her brothers in Ohio.

Mrs. J. W. Flood and son, Joel, have returned from Norfolk and are at the Virginian for the winter.

The Lynchburg tobacco market is holding up well and cash is now said for the weed.

Mrs W. A. Agee and daughter, Margaret, visited friends and relatives near Prospect recently.

If you want something good for dinner beds call on L. F. Ferguson Bro. at Appomattox, Va. 1-15 3w

Miss Emma Chbrnault, of Lynchburg, after a visit of some weeks to Mr. E. N. Wooldridge, returned to her home Monday.

Liberty Baptist church has two elegant new chandeliers. They add greatly to the looks and comfort of the church.

Misses Gladys Marshall and Emily White and Messrs Lee Lipscomb and Thomas Thompson were guests at Mr W. A. Agee's last week.

We learn through Mrs. J. P. Leshman, who is in Bluefield with her daughter, Miss Ethel, who has been very, that Miss Ethel is improving.

Services at Stonewall next Sunday morning at 11:40 o'clock and at Chestnut school house at 3 o'clock by Dr. Winn.

Miss Lizzie Abbitt returned to her home in Crews Tuesday after a visit of two weeks to friends and relatives in Appomattox.

Mr. J. L. Lipscomb, of Crewe, returned home Saturday, after spending an enjoyable week visiting his sister at the home of Mrs R. E. Marshall.

We were sorry to hear that Mr. Rush Read, of West-Virginia had died of his legs badly mangled by getting caught in a belt of a saw mill there where he was engaged in sawing.

Mrs. Mathewson and children left Monday for Washington to join Mr. Mathewson. They will make that city their future home as we can ill afford to lose such citizens and we hate to see them leave.

The Woman's Missionary Society of Liberty Baptist church will meet with Mrs C. A. Hancock Wednesday evening at 2:30 o'clock. All ladies are cordially invited to be present and bring in their squares and envelopes to the Home Mission Board.

Mr. Bradley W. Babcock died at the home of his son, Mr. P. E. Babcock, at Concord this morning. He had been in feeble health for some time, but his friends did not think his trouble a serious one. He was stricken with paralysis Sunday and never rallied, and finally passed away as above stated. The deceased was born in Guernsey 76 years ago, and at the age of 23 he came to Concord and taught school and married Miss Mary Elizabeth Cardwell. At the breaking out of the war he entered and served the Confederacy faithfully and gallantly and was several times promoted; he was lieutenant in his company. When the surrender took place he had three brothers who laid down their arms at this point, who served through the war in the Federal side. Mr. Babcock was a prominent Mason and they will have charge of his funeral, which will take place from Bethlehem church, Concord, where he had been a member for 40 years, to-morrow, and the interment will be had at Spring Hill Cemetery, Lynchburg Thursday evening. He was a kind man and had many friends. He is survived by four sons and one daughter—Mr. H. C. Babcock, of this county, Mrs. Bettie Sweeney, of Lynchburg, Rev. J. G. Babcock, of Pattonsburg, R. C. Babcock, of Lynchburg, and P. E. Babcock, of Concord.

Pounded at Prospect.

We desire to express our sincere appreciation and acknowledge our great indebtedness to the good people of Prospect charge for their kindly consideration of their pastor and his family since our return to this charge for another conference year.

The crowning act of a series of kindnesses which has continued for the past two years was a great pounding given us by the members and friends of Prospect and Olive Branch churches. A select company completely surprising us came to the parsonage on Christmas eve, bringing grea t baskets and boxes of good things, consisting of a barrel of flour, sugar, coffee, hams, fresh meats, butter, chickens, canned goods, honey, preserves, pickles, oysters, cakes, apples, oranges, confectioneries, besides corn and provender (by the barrel and stack) for horses, wood by cords and money. Then came a gift of a check for $15.00 from the members of Pamplin City church and a purse from Smyrna for little Hazel Hodges, the youngest member of our family.

May God bless each doner and richly reward them for this and all other expressions of their affection and may we be able to serve them more faithfully in the future than we have in the past.

A. L. CLEMENT.

Prospect, Jan. 6th, 1908.

On Reedy.

Our people are expecting to see a new bridge at this place in the near future, and no doubt they will feel very grateful indeed to those in authority, for such a bridge has been needed here for a long time.

We are glad to relate that our sick ones are convalescent. Many who had been on the sick list went around some during the beautiful holidays.

We must be allowed to speak of our Christmas tree at Falling River, though it be a little stale to some extent. Our Sabbath School and public school combined in the affair and it was quite a success and afforded our little ones much pleasure.

Miss Daisy Martin made a flying trip to see her home people during the holidays.

Our schools have opened up and we hope are doing well, after such a lengthy vacation.

Miss Eltha Morris is spending some time with her sister, Mrs. Eddie Dickerson.

Our young people were entertained last Wednesday night at the home of Mr Neal Tanner.

Many of our farmers are busy stripping tobacco and are anxious to hear and to know more about the Appomattox market.

Mr. Ford, our postmaster on this line, wears a smile, having had a new addition in his line of girls.

Tower Hill.

One of the most enjoyable occasions of the season was the Christmas tree at Liberty Chapel on Christmas day. The church was beautifully decorated with evergreens and shaded lamps and with the tree in the gallery forming a cosy ground, loaded with gifts and toys, presented a pretty scene. Just before the gifts were delivered by Santa Claus, Mr. Tom Goodwin, a nicely arranged programme was carried into effect as follows:

Opening chorus—by school. Christmas Greetings—by Thelma Hammersley. Our Christmas Scene—by Hattie Smith, Little Polly Welcome—by Robert Dingold. Let the Bells Ring Out their Joy—by Pearl Thornhill and Lula Smith. The Shepherds' Vision—Nancy Dingold, Santa Claus Misjudged—by Ben Threshill. Song—by school, "Angels." The Christmas Eve—by Melvin Childers. Jes' Fore Christmas—Wiley Garrett. Under the King's Banner—Lillian, Wiley and Percy Garrett. Marcia and Percy Childers and Nancy Dingold. Tommy's Prayer—Pearl Thornhill, Boy's Rights—Walker Thornhill. A Bit of Holly—Florence Dixon. A Little Secret—Thelma Hammersley. Hello! Santa—Willie Smith. The Christmas Goats—Marcia Childers, Lilian Garrett, Lula Smith and Pearl Threshill. Gifts to the King—Florence Dixon. The Princess Gift—Harry Dow. Song, Praise Him, Praise Him"—by school. Grandma's Mistake—Mary Goodwin, Christ. Bas Chimes—Florence Dixon, Alice Smith, Pearl Thornhill, Ethel Weiss and Mary Goodwin. What Means this Glory—Marcia Childers. The First Christmas—Lillian Garrett, Hosts of Ages—Ella Goodwin, Christmas—Lillian Garrett, Marion Childers and Nancy Dingold. Lassie—Mary Garrett, Don't—John Robert Thornhill, A Christmas Lesson—Mary Smith. The Quarrel—Perry Childers, I Want to see My Mamma—Ruth Smith, Dolly's Christmas Tree—Susie Booker, Annie's and Willie's Prayer—Mabel Garrett. A Merry Christmas—Annie Smith, Closing Address—Brandon Morris, Song, "God Be With You"—by school.

Each child was presented with a bag of candy from Santa Claus after the exercises. All present seemed to enjoy the occasion.

Wells—Phelps.

At Liberty Chapel Baptist Church, Appomattox county, December 25th, at 2 p.m., amid farns, ever, roses, shaded lamps and a host of friends and relatives, Mr. Whiteside Alonza Wells and Miss Kerry Jane Phelps were united in the holy bonds of matrimony Rev. A. H. Allison, pastor of the bride, officiating.

To the strains of "Lohengrin's" wedding march, beautifully rendered by Miss Ellie Wingfield, of Charlotte county, "Mendelssohn's" being used as a recessional. The bridal party entered the church in the following order:

First came the two little ribbon girls, Misses Josephine Phelps, of Lynchburg, a cousin of the groom, and Fannie Dixon, beautifully attired in white frocks and blue sashes, took back the ribbon for the bridal party to pass through, then the four ushers, Messrs. Leslie and Winston Threshill, Branch Harris and Sam Gunter preceded by the four couples of waiters who were as follows: Miss Nellie Cunningham and Mr. Clarence Phelps, Miss Mamie Phelps and Mr. John Wells, Miss Mary Woodridge and Mr. Bob Lewellyn, Miss Maggie Phelps and Mr. Eddie Phelps. Next came the two flower girls, Misses Effie Wells and Dora Woolridge. Miss Wells down the right aisle strewing flowers in front of the groom and his best man, Mr. Luther Phelps, brother of the bride and Miss Woolridge down the left aisle preceded by the bride and her maid of honor, Miss Tempie Wells, sister of the groom. They met at the altar beneath a floral arch lighted up by twenty-two candles representing the age of the bride, where the impressive words were spoken by the pastor which made them man and wife. The waiters, maid of honor and organist were attired in white organdy, with blue sashes, the flower girls wearing blue organdy and white sashes, the color scheme being blue and white. The bride was beautifully attired in white silk with a long veil caught with a wreath of bride's roses. The groomsmen wore the conventional black.

Immediately after the marriage the bridal party drove to the home of the groom, where an elegant reception was tendered them. On Wednesday night they were entertained at the home of the bride's father, near Glenfall.

Miss Phelps is the daughter of Mr. Richard Phelps and is one of Appomattox's most charming brunettes. Mr. Wells is a young man of sterling business qualities and well he may say in the words of Shakespeare "she is mine, I am rich in gaining such a jewel."

They will make their home in this county, surrounded by a host of friends and relatives, who wish them a long life of happiness and every home is very tastefully many handsome and useful presents, which attested the popularity of both.

Those in attendance from a distance were Mr. and Mrs. Joe Phelps and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. John Cunningham, Mrs. Mitt and daughter, Misses Mamie, Ruth and Bessie Phelps and young Mess. of Lynchburg, Messrs. Sam, Clarence and Eddie Phelps and Lewis Thornhill, of Lynchburg, Mr. R. L. Phelps, of Newport News, Messrs. Bob and Roy Dunnivant, of Buckingham, Misses Mamie and Minnie Cunningham, Dora and Mary Woodridge and Mrs. Sam Cunningham, of Buckingham, Miss Effie Wingfield, of Charlotte and Misses Maude and Lizzie Brown, of Nelson county. Mr. A. R. Thornhill acted as part well as "master of ceremonies." A SPECTATOR.

Harvey—Cocke Marriage.

On the last night of the old year quite a large party assembled at the residence of Mr. S. W. Harvey, of Campbell county, to witness the marriage of his daughter, Mary Lizzie to Mr. Thomas Cocke. It was a pretty scene and much enjoyed by all present. The parlor was beautifully decorated with evergreens, bells and flowers. The bride looked very stylish in a dress of white panmana and silk and the maids were also dressed in white. They were Misses Addie Harvey Lene Cocke, Witt Foster, Mary Willie Cocke and Maud Elliott. The groomsmen were Messrs W. B. Harvey, Graydon Cocke, Bess Fore, F. E. Peniscot and J. L. Foster.

The ceremony was performed by Rev. Geo. Chockley in his most impressive manner.

They received many useful and handsome presents.

Both of the young people are very popular and the best wishes of a host of friends will follow them to their home in Appomattox county.
